

Since writing the above I have recd another from Josy, She says I dont feel at all satisfied to think that others will do all the fighting, and get all the praise and glory and I shall have to return home without having so much as seen the enemy I enlisted to fight, But says if I should consult my own personal comfort and convenience I should not want to change our condition if we could not get a chance to take part in an engagement by moving, I would write more of what he says but I want you to write to him and get your information little more direct, I will add he says I dont think we shall be called from here until we leave for home, and this is by far the safest place we could be in, I feel
safest place we could be in, I feel
extremely thankful that it is so well with him, — I have invited Henry

Transcription:

[fragment letter, f.35]

Since writing the above I have rec'd another from Josy, He says I do'nt feel
at all satisfied to think that others will
do all the fighting, and get all the praise
and glory and I shall have to return
home without having so much as seen
the enemy I enlisted to fight, But says
if I should consult my own personal comfort and convenience I should not want
to change our condition if we could not
get a chance to take part in an engagement by mooving, I would write more
of what he says but I want you to write
to him and get your information little more
direct, I will add he says I don't think
we shall be called from here until we
leave for home, and this is by far the
safest place we could be in, I feel
extremely thankful that it is so well
with him, - I have invited Henry
to write but he says he wrote to you in my last to you and hopes you will answer it, But he is such a poor writer he dreads to attempt it, hope you will excuse him for his will is good, I hope you have rec'd all the letters I have sent ere this, and that I shall get your missing ones, I suppose you would like to hear something about our farming affairs so I will just say our folks finished planting yesterday, they have got about eight acres sowed and planted have not planted much corn however for it has been rather a late spring here, but I hope you will get home before harvesting and see for yourself Our colt which you spoke of in yr letter we had to sell last fall to procure means to live, but perhaps it is just as well for your father has enough to do without breaking colts, and nobody else

without breaking colts, and nobody else
can do it you know to suit him,
I will close by hoping that prosperity 11 1-

Transcription:

in my last to you and hopes you will
answer it, But he is such a poor writer
he dreads to attempt it, hope you will
excuse him for his will is good, I
hope you have rec'd all the letters I have sent ere this, and that I shall get
your missing ones, I suppose you would
like to hear something about our farming
affairs so I will just say our folks finished planting yesterday, they have got
about eight acres sowed and planted
have not planted much corn however
for it has been rather a late spring
here, but I hope you will get home
before harvesting and see for yourself Our colt which you spoke of in G's letter
we had to sell last fall to procure means
to live, but perhaps it is just as
well for your father has enough to do
without breaking colts, and nobody else
can do it you know to suit him,
I will close by hoping that prosperity may attend you and soon return you to your Mother